

Associate Director, Equity Research - Private Banking

- A Reputable European Bank
- Excellent Career Prospect
- Highly Competitive Package and Bonuses

Our client, a reputable European Private Bank, they are now seeking high calibre professional to join their organisation.

The incumbent will report to Head of Research.

Responsibilities:

- Contribute to the global platform, recommendations and investment solutions for all Client Relationship Managers to obtain house view so that they can formulate & offer investment solutions in servicing their clients and growing their business
- Maintain coverage of between large cap or good quality stocks with investment ratings, target prices and reports
- Participate to the Investment Strategy Weekly reports
- Provide market views and stock recommendations for the IDEA publication
- Comply with all in-house compliance rules and guidelines
- Provide general market views and views of major sectors or segments if required. Answer to specific requests

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree holder in Economics, Quantitative Finance, Accounting or related disciplines with professional qualified in CFA is a plus
- At least 4 years solid experience in advisory, research or investment management role within banking, brokerage, asset management or fund house working environment with good knowledge in Hong Kong and China market;
- Strong analytical and quantitative skills and be able to complete the research reports independently.
- Excellent writing skill, diligent and able to work under pressure
- Excellent communication skills in English, Cantonese and Mandarin

To apply, please forward your resume to gody.lui@gsiconsultants.com.hk or contact Gody Lui at +852 3755 5488. All applications will be treated with strict confidentiality.

Only short-listed candidates will be notified.