

Head of Learning and Development Team

- Top Tier Medical Aesthetic Company
- Rewarding Career Path
- Attractive Remuneration Package

Our client is Top tier Hong Kong Medical Aesthetic Company. To cope with their aggressive business plan, they are now seeking for a high calibre candidate to head up the Learning and Development Team.

The incumbent will report to General Manager.

Responsibilities:

- Build up strategic training programs for different level of management to achieve the aggressive business plan and meet the customer service standard
- Define the effective learning skills and development target to reinforce company vision and core values
- Prepare training material, implement the national and divisional retail initiatives and conduct training delivery
- Coordinate and communicate with center manager and business partners to organize learning and development events
- Work in close collaboration with the internal departments and external educational institutes

Requirements:

- Bachelor Degree holder in Business Administration, Operation/Service Management, Hotel and Hospitality or related disciplines
- At least 12 years experience in Talent management/ Learning & Development field
- Previous experiences in sizable company and familiar with retail operation is a plus
- Strong analytical, strategic and organizational mind
- Excellent management, coaching, communication, interpersonal and negotiation skills
- Proficiency in spoken and written of English and Chinese
- Proficient in MS Office

Candidates with less experience will be also considered as Manager.

To apply, please forward your resume quoting job reference no. GSI8722 to jacob.lau@qsiconsultants.com.hk or contact Jacob Lau at +852 3755 5422. All applications will be treated with strict confidentiality. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.