

Director, Information Technology

- Team Head Of Dynamic Team
- Top Tier Property Developer
- Good Prospect With Expanding Market Share

Our client is top tier Hong Kong Listed Property Developer. They are now seeking for a high calibre candidate to head up the IT Department for the whole Group.

The incumbent will report to CEO.

Responsibilities:

- Work closely with in-house IT professionals and vendors to enhance the internal IT System to meet the expanding business requirement
- Work as a change agent to identify operational benefits for the Group
- Develop IT strategic planning and governance processes
- Improve internal customer engagement for all IT related project
- Lead and assign the internal IT team for on-site support and project delivery

Requirements:

- Bachelor Degree holder in Information Technology, Computer Science or relevant discipline
- Minimum 10 years experience as a IT leader of sizable corporate, preferably from major property developer
- Experience in implementing large and complex infrastructures, and managing multi-national operational support and delivery teams
- Analytical, tenacious and result-oriented and be comfortable to see the change and improvement for both strategic and operational level
- Proven record of sound vendor management skills as well as client facing responsibility

Candidate with less experience can be considered as IT Manager.

To apply, please forward your resume to ivan.lui@gsiconsultants.com.hk or contact Ivan Lui at +852 3755 5499. All applications will be treated with strict confidentiality. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.