

Principal Consultant - Change Management

- Multinational Consulting Firm
- Chance to work with Fortune 500 Companies
- Circa HK$1M p.a.

Our client is a top-tier consulting firm with business operations all over the world and serving numerous Fortune 500 companies. With an enormous growth in their offices in Asia, they are now looking for a seasoned professional to join their advisory team.

Responsibilities:

- Play a key role in planning and executing business development strategy across the Greater China region
- Deliver People & Change Advisory work for multinationals, private equity and domestic enterprises
- Scope and manage large transformation projects such as start-up, revitalization, close down, relocation, etc
- Develop practical recommendations and solutions through divergent and convergent thinking
- Develop, coach and mentor team members

Requirements:

- Degree from Human Resources, Psychology or related disciplines; MBA preferred
- At least 10 years relevant experience preferably gained in external consulting or professional firms
- Demonstrable understanding of complexities of the China market
- Proven track record of client delivery, strong technical capabilities and project management skills
- Ambitious & outgoing personality, able to deliver under pressure
- Excellent interpersonal skills and able to demonstrate an aptitude for business development and long-term relationship building

To apply, forward your resume to resume@gsiconsultants.com.hk or contact Ade Wong at +852 3755 5400. All applications will be treated with strict confidentiality. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.