

Private Bankers – European Markets

Our client is a leading Private Bank with extensive Global representation and an impressive business platform.

First class career opportunities currently exist for high calibre Private Bankers with significant experience undertaking European markets coverage who are seeking new challenges with a high profile name.

Team Leader positions are also available for those individuals who have a proven track record of asset gathering in addition to building and leading a successful team.

Please apply to barry.lawrence@gsiconsultants.com ref BL/PB5 in MS Word format or for a confidential discussion on this or other Private Banking opportunities telephone (65) 6834 0055