

Technical Writer (Expatriate or Thai)

Location: Bangkok

Our client is a leading multinational company in construction and tools industry. It operates service over 70 countries with more than 15,000 employees. In Thailand, it is seeking a Technical Writer who is high caliber

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for editing company product manual including technical instruction, product description parts to publish and present to customers
- Write product reviews with accurate and clear information and procedures to be understood by non technical readers
- Illustrate products and instruction through well-selected photograph, graphic and sketch
- Arrange and adjust master manual format to be easily read and well-organized
- Do proofing to ensure the correctness of language and quality of the manual
- Deal with technicians to ensure the appropriateness and accuracy of the information

Qualification:

- Any nationality with engineering background, native speaking expatriate is preferred
- Fluency in English
- Direct experience in technical document and drawing will be an advantage
- Good knowledge in Illustrator, Photoshop, Adobe Acrobat, MS PowerPoint and MS Excel

The Company offers very good compensation package to the right candidate. If you are interested, please submit your updated CV in MS Word format with current photo and details on current salary with your expectations to rujiret@gsirecruitment.com other format may not be considered.