

Ms Annie Yap wins Leading CEO Award

In HR's most illustrious award night, GMP's CEO, Ms Annie Yap, shone amongst the finest in the industry.

She was named one of four Leading CEOs for 2007 in acknowledgement of her remarkable performance in implementing effective HR practices.

"There is no leading CEO without a leading management and staff," she said, sharing the credit of her success with her team.

The other three winners of the award were Mr David Wong of ABN Amro, Mr Kenneth Chan of McDonald's and Ms Wee Wei Ling of ParkRoyal Hospitality Management.

Presented by the Singapore HR Institute (SHRI), The Singapore HR Awards shifts the limelight on all of HR's most prominent and prolific and recognises them for their achievements in the year.

Annie continues to lead her GMP team to new heights as the company further establishes its foothold as the foremost staffing agency here in Singapore as well as in the region.

